Using Creative Commons Public Licenses

Creative Commons public licenses provide a standard set of terms and conditions that creators and other rights holders may use to share original works of authorship and other material subject to copyright and certain other rights specified in the public license below. The following considerations are for informational purposes only, are not exhaustive, and do not form part of our licenses.

- Considerations for licensors: Our public licenses are intended for use by those authorized to give the public permission to use material in ways otherwise restricted by copyright and certain other rights. Our licenses are irrevocable. Licensors should read and understand the terms and conditions of the license they choose before applying it. Licensors should also secure all rights necessary before applying our licenses so that the public can reuse the material as expected. Licensors should clearly mark any material not subject to the license. This includes other CC-licensed material, or material used under an exception or limitation to copyright. More considerations for licensors.
- Considerations for the public: By using one of our public licenses, a licensor grants the public permission to use the licensed material under specified terms and conditions. If the licensor's permission is not necessary for any reason—for example, because of any applicable exception or limitation to copyright—then that use is not regulated by the license. Our licenses grant only permissions under copyright and certain other rights that a licensor has authority to grant. Use of the licensed material may still be restricted for other reasons, including because others have copyright or other rights in the material. A licensor may make special requests, such as asking that all changes be marked or described. Although not required by our licenses, you are encouraged to respect those requests where reasonable. Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial 4.0 International Public License

By exercising the Licensed Rights (defined below), You accept and agree to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial 4.0 International Public License (“Public License”). To the extent this Public License may be interpreted as a contract, You are granted the Licensed Rights in consideration of Your acceptance of these terms and conditions, and the Licensor grants You such rights in consideration of benefits the Licensor receives from making the Licensed Material available under these terms and conditions.

Section 1 – Definitions.

a. Adapted Material means material subject to Copyright and Similar Rights that is derived from or based upon the Licensed Material and in which the Licensed Material is translated, altered, arranged, transformed, or otherwise modified in a manner requiring permission under the Copyright and Similar Rights held by the Licensor. For purposes of this Public License, where the Licensed Material is a musical work, performance, or sound recording, Adapted Material is always produced where the Licensed Material is synched in timed relation with a moving image.

b. Adapter's License means the license You apply to Your Copyright and Similar Rights in Your contributions to Adapted Material in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Public License.

c. Copyright and Similar Rights means copyright and/or similar rights closely related to copyright including, without limitation, performance, broadcast, sound recording, and Sui Generis Database Rights, without regard to how the rights are labeled or categorized. For purposes of this Public License, the rights specified in Section 2(b)(1)-(2) are not Copyright and Similar Rights.

d. Effective Technological Measures means those measures that, in the absence of proper authority, may not be circumvented under laws fulfilling obligations under Article 11 of the WIPO Copyright Treaty adopted on December 20, 1996, and/or similar international agreements.

e. Exceptions and Limitations means fair use, fair dealing, and/or any other exception or limitation to Copyright and Similar Rights that applies to Your use of the Licensed Material.

f. Licensed Material means the artistic or literary work, database, or other material to which the Licensor applied this Public License.

g. Licensed Rights means the rights granted to You subject to the terms and conditions of this Public License, which are limited to all Copyright and Similar Rights that apply to Your use of the Licensed Material and that the Licensor has authority to license.

h. Licensor means the individual(s) or entity(ies) granting rights under this Public License.

i. NonCommercial means not primarily intended for or directed towards commercial advantage or monetary compensation. For purposes of this Public License, the exchange of the Licensed Material for other material subject to Copyright and Similar Rights by digital file-sharing or similar means is NonCommercial provided there is no payment of monetary compensation in connection with the exchange.

j. Share means to provide material to the public by any means or process that requires permission under the Licensed Rights, such as reproduction, public display, public performance, distribution, dissemination, communication, or importation, and to make material available to the public including in ways that members of the public may access the material from a place and at a time individually chosen by them.

k. Sui Generis Database Rights means rights other than copyright resulting from Directive 96/9/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 11 March 1996 on the legal protection of databases, as amended and/or succeeded, as well as other essentially equivalent rights anywhere in the world.

l. You means the individual or entity exercising the Licensed Rights under this Public License. Your has a corresponding meaning.

Section 2 – Scope.

a. License grant.

1. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Public License, the Licensor hereby grants You a worldwide, royalty-free, non-sublicensable, non-exclusive, irrevocable license to exercise the Licensed Rights in the Licensed Material to:

A. reproduce and Share the Licensed Material, in whole or in part, for NonCommercial purposes only; and

B. produce, reproduce, and Share Adapted Material for NonCommercial purposes only.

2. Exceptions and Limitations. For the avoidance of doubt, where Exceptions and Limitations apply to Your use, this Public License does not apply, and You do not need to comply with its terms and conditions.

3. Term. The term of this Public License is specified in Section 6(a).

4. Media and formats; technical modifications allowed. The Licensor authorizes You to exercise the Licensed Rights in all media and formats whether now known or hereafter created, and to make technical modifications necessary to do so. The Licensor waives and/or agrees not to assert any right or authority to forbid You from making technical modifications necessary to exercise the Licensed Rights, including technical modifications necessary to circumvent Effective Technological Measures. For purposes of this Public License, simply making modifications authorized by this Section 2(a)(4) never produces Adapted Material.

5. Downstream recipients.

A. Offer from the Licensor – Licensed Material. Every recipient of the Licensed Material automatically receives an offer from the Licensor to exercise the Licensed Rights under the terms and conditions of this Public License.

B. No downstream restrictions. You may not offer or impose any additional or different terms or conditions on, or apply any Effective Technological Measures to, the Licensed Material if doing so restricts exercise of the Licensed Rights by any recipient of the Licensed Material.

6. No endorsement. Nothing in this Public License constitutes or may be construed as permission to assert or imply that You are, or that Your use of the Licensed Material is, connected with, or sponsored, endorsed, or granted official status by, the Licensor or others designated to receive attribution as provided in Section 3(a)(1)(A)(i).

b. Other rights.

1. Moral rights, such as the right of integrity, are not licensed under this Public License, nor are publicity, privacy, and/or other similar personality rights; however, to the extent possible, the Licensor waives and/or agrees not to assert any such rights held by the Licensor to the limited extent necessary to allow You to exercise the Licensed Rights, but not otherwise.

2. Patent and trademark rights are not licensed under this Public License.

3. To the extent possible, the Licensor waives any right to collect royalties from You for the exercise of the Licensed Rights, whether directly or through a collecting society under any voluntary or waivable statutory or compulsory licensing scheme. In all other cases the Licensor expressly reserves any right to collect such royalties, including when the Licensed Material is used other than for NonCommercial purposes.

Section 3 – License Conditions.

Your exercise of the Licensed Rights is expressly made subject to the following conditions.

a. Attribution.

1. If You Share the Licensed Material (including in modified form), You must:

A. retain the following if it is supplied by the Licensor with the Licensed Material:

i. identification of the creator(s) of the Licensed Material and any others designated to receive attribution, in any reasonable manner requested by the Licensor (including by pseudonym if designated);

ii. a copyright notice;

iii. a notice that refers to this Public License;

iv. a notice that refers to the disclaimer of warranties;

v. a URI or hyperlink to the Licensed Material to the extent reasonably practicable;

B. indicate if You modified the Licensed Material and retain an indication of any previous modifications; and

C. indicate the Licensed Material is licensed under this Public License, and include the text of, or the URI or hyperlink to, this Public License.

2. You may satisfy the conditions in Section 3(a)(1) in any reasonable manner based on the medium, means, and context in which You Share the Licensed Material. For example, it may be reasonable to satisfy the conditions by providing a URI or hyperlink to a resource that includes the required information.
3. If requested by the Licensor, You must remove any of the information required by Section 3(a)(1)(A) to the extent reasonably practicable.
4. If You Share Adapted Material You produce, the Adapter's License You apply must not prevent recipients of the Adapted Material from complying with this Public License.

Section 4 – Sui Generis Database Rights.

Where the Licensed Rights include Sui Generis Database Rights that apply to Your use of the Licensed Material:

- a. for the avoidance of doubt, Section 2(a)(1) grants You the right to extract, reuse, reproduce, and Share all or a substantial portion of the contents of the database for NonCommercial purposes only;
- b. if You include all or a substantial portion of the database contents in a database in which You have Sui Generis Database Rights, then the database in which You have Sui Generis Database Rights (but not its individual contents) is Adapted Material; and
- c. You must comply with the conditions in Section 3(a) if You Share all or a substantial portion of the contents of the database.

For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 4 supplements and does not replace Your obligations under this Public License where the Licensed Rights include other Copyright and Similar Rights.

Section 5 – Disclaimer of Warranties and Limitation of Liability.

- a. Unless otherwise separately undertaken by the Licensor, to the extent possible, the Licensor offers the Licensed Material as-is and as-available, and makes no representations or warranties of any kind concerning the Licensed Material, whether express, implied, statutory, or other. This includes, without limitation, warranties of title, merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, absence of latent or other defects, accuracy, or the presence or absence of errors, whether or not known or discoverable. Where disclaimers of warranties are not allowed in full or in part, this disclaimer may not apply to You.
- b. To the extent possible, in no event will the Licensor be liable to You on any legal theory (including, without limitation, negligence) or otherwise for any direct, special, indirect, incidental, consequential, punitive, exemplary, or other losses, costs, expenses, or damages arising out of this Public License or use of the Licensed Material, even if the Licensor has been advised of the possibility of such losses, costs, expenses, or damages. Where a limitation of liability is not allowed in full or in part, this limitation may not apply to You.
- c. The disclaimer of warranties and limitation of liability provided above shall be interpreted in a manner that, to the extent possible, most closely approximates an absolute disclaimer and waiver of all liability.

Section 6 – Term and Termination.

a. This Public License applies for the term of the Copyright and Similar Rights licensed here. However, if You fail to comply with this Public License, then Your rights under this Public License terminate automatically.

b. Where Your right to use the Licensed Material has terminated under Section 6(a), it reinstates:

1. automatically as of the date the violation is cured, provided it is cured within 30 days of Your discovery of the violation; or
2. upon express reinstatement by the Licensors.

For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 6(b) does not affect any right the Licensors may have to seek remedies for Your violations of this Public License.

c. For the avoidance of doubt, the Licensors may also offer the Licensed Material under separate terms or conditions or stop distributing the Licensed Material at any time; however, doing so will not terminate this Public License.

d. Sections 1, 5, 6, 7, and 8 survive termination of this Public License.

Section 7 – Other Terms and Conditions.

a. The Licensors shall not be bound by any additional or different terms or conditions communicated by You unless expressly agreed.

b. Any arrangements, understandings, or agreements regarding the Licensed Material not stated herein are separate from and independent of the terms and conditions of this Public License.

Section 8 – Interpretation.

a. For the avoidance of doubt, this Public License does not, and shall not be interpreted to, reduce, limit, restrict, or impose conditions on any use of the Licensed Material that could lawfully be made without permission under this Public License.

b. To the extent possible, if any provision of this Public License is deemed unenforceable, it shall be automatically reformed to the minimum extent necessary to make it enforceable. If the provision cannot be reformed, it shall be severed from this Public License without affecting the enforceability of the remaining terms and conditions.

c. No term or condition of this Public License will be waived and no failure to comply consented to unless expressly agreed to by the Licensors.

d. Nothing in this Public License constitutes or may be interpreted as a limitation upon, or waiver of, any privileges and immunities that apply to the Licensors or You, including from the legal processes of any jurisdiction or authority.

Creative Commons is not a party to its public licenses. Notwithstanding, Creative Commons may elect to apply one of its public licenses to material it publishes and in those instances will be considered the "Licensor." Except for the limited purpose of indicating that material is shared under a Creative Commons public license or as otherwise permitted by the Creative Commons policies published at creativecommons.org/policies, Creative Commons does not authorize the use of the trademark "Creative Commons" or any other trademark or logo of Creative Commons without its prior written consent including, without limitation, in connection with any unauthorized modifications to any of its public licenses or any other arrangements, understandings, or agreements concerning use of licensed material. For the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph does not form part of the public licenses. Creative Commons may be contacted at creativecommons.org

Clinical, Research, and Internal Digital Use Exception to the CC BY-NC 4.0 License

Version 1.0, May 22, 2026

Preamble and Licensor Identity

This Exception supplements, but does not replace, the accompanying Creative Commons Attribution–NonCommercial 4.0 International license ("Base License") applied to the Licensed Material. In the event of any conflict between this Exception and the Base License, this Exception controls with respect to the permissions and prohibitions stated here.

The Licensed Material comprises two components under separate ownership:

- The Puppy Escape narrative text is © 2015 Michael J. Kleiman.
- The scoring rubrics and prompts are © University of Miami.

This Exception is granted jointly by Michael J. Kleiman and the University of Miami (collectively, the "Licensor"). Each grant of permission, prohibition, and reservation in this Exception is made by the rights holder of the relevant component. Where this Exception authorizes use of "the Licensed Material," that authorization is effective only to the extent each respective rights holder has joined in granting it.

Section A — Definitions (for this Exception)

A.1. "Licensed Material" means, for purposes of this Exception, not only the verbatim Puppy Escape narrative text, the verbatim scoring rubrics, and any supplied figures or recordings, but also the assessment construct they embody: the scoring criteria, scoring rubric, item structure, semantic-category and narrative-event mapping, and the methodology by which responses are elicited and scored. A work that reproduces, paraphrases, restructures, translates, or otherwise reimplements this construct in a manner that preserves its assessment logic is a derivative of the Licensed Material, whether or not it copies the original wording.

A.2. "Internal Use" means use of the Licensed Material exclusively by an entity's own employees, and by bona fide Research Collaborators as defined below, for that entity's own patient care or research activities.

A.3. "Research Collaborator" means an entity or individual engaged with the user in a genuine, non-fee research collaboration — for example, a co-investigator, a research partner under a collaboration or data-use agreement, or a co-sponsor of a study. A party is not a Research Collaborator merely because it pays for, subscribes to, receives as a service, or is a customer or client of, any offering that uses the Licensed Material.

A.4. "Commercial Offering" means any product, service, platform, application, scoring system, or other offering — whether delivered as software, as a hosted or cloud service, as an assessment or scoring service, or in any other form — that is sold, licensed, syndicated, or commercially marketed to third parties and whose value derives from the Licensed Material (i.e., for which a third party pays, in whole or in part, for access to, or the functionality of, the Licensed Material itself). For the avoidance of doubt, charging third parties for access to or the functionality of the Licensed Material is a Commercial Offering even if the underlying software is never itself sold or licensed.

A.5. "Professional Service Fee" means a fee charged by a healthcare provider, clinic, hospital system, research organization, or contract research organization to its own patients, payers, participants, or research sponsors for clinical care or research services that the entity itself delivers, where the fee is consideration for that entity's professional service and not for access to, or distribution of, the Licensed Material itself.

Section B — Permitted Uses

B.1. Clinical Use. Healthcare providers, clinics, and hospital systems may use, digitize, and integrate the Licensed Material for the direct clinical assessment, diagnosis, and treatment of their own individual patients.

B.2. Fee-for-Service Clinical Practice. The Clinical Use permission in B.1 includes the right of healthcare providers, clinics, and hospital systems to charge a Professional Service Fee to patients or payers for clinical assessment or care services that incorporate the Licensed Material, provided the fee is consideration for the provider's professional service and not for access to, or distribution of, the Licensed Material itself.

B.3. Research Use. Academic institutions, non-profit research organizations, contract research organizations (CROs), pharmaceutical and biotechnology companies, and other entities may use the Licensed Material for their own research purposes — including clinical trials, observational studies, and other investigations, regardless of funding source (including industry-sponsored research) — and may integrate it into their own internal research data collection systems, electronic data capture (EDC) platforms, and internally developed research applications, provided such use is Internal Use as defined above. Such entities may charge a Professional Service Fee to their own research sponsors for research services they deliver that incorporate the Licensed Material, subject to the limitation in B.4 and the prohibitions in Section C.

B.4. Limit of the Fee-for-Service Permissions. The permissions in B.2 and B.3 authorize fees charged by an entity for its own delivery of care or research services to its own patients, payers, participants, or sponsors. They do not authorize offering the Licensed Material — or a product, platform, or scoring service whose value derives from the Licensed Material — to third parties for their use, which remains a Commercial Offering governed by Section C.

B.5. Permitted Digital Integration. Healthcare and research entities may integrate, automate, or digitize the Licensed Material into their own internal Electronic Health Records (EHRs), scoring systems, EDC systems, or internally developed clinical or research applications, provided such systems are used solely for that entity's own Internal Use and are not offered to third parties as, or as part of, a Commercial Offering.

Section C — Prohibitions and Reserved Rights

C.1. No commercialization of the Material. This Exception does not permit commercialization of the Licensed Material. It is prohibited to incorporate, integrate, bundle, or otherwise use the Licensed Material in or in connection with any Commercial Offering. This prohibition applies regardless of whether the Licensed Material is used in its original or in derivative form, and regardless of whether the user characterizes its activity as clinical, research, or internal. Any entity wishing to use the Licensed Material in a Commercial Offering must first obtain a separate written commercial license from the Licensor.

C.2. Relationship to the fee-for-service permissions. For the avoidance of doubt, a healthcare provider's or research entity's charging of a Professional Service Fee for clinical care or research services delivered to its own patients, payers, participants, or sponsors under Sections B.2 and B.3 is not a prohibited commercial sale under C.1, even where such services incorporate the Licensed Material. The prohibition in C.1 applies to offering the Licensed Material itself — or a product, platform, or scoring service whose value derives from the Licensed Material — to third parties for a fee.

C.3. No fee-based redistribution of the Material. Except as permitted under the Professional Service Fee provisions, it is prohibited to charge any third party for access to, distribution of, or the functionality of the Licensed Material, whether or not any software embodying the Licensed Material is itself sold, licensed, or transferred.

C.4. The prohibition follows the Material. The permissions granted here attach to qualifying Internal Use and fee-for-service practice and do not survive a change in the nature of that use. If a system, tool, or dataset incorporating the Licensed Material is subsequently sold, transferred, spun out, made part of an acquired business, or otherwise made part of a Commercial Offering, a separate written commercial license from the Licensor is required at that time, regardless of how the system was originally built.

C.5. Derivatives do not escape these terms. Producing Adapted Material or any derivative of the Licensed Material (as defined in Section A.1) does not remove that material from the scope of this Exception or the Base License. A derivative that preserves the assessment construct remains subject to the NonCommercial restriction and to this Exception.

Section D — Effect of the Cure Provision

D.1. The automatic reinstatement provision of the Base License (Section 6(b)(1)) does not apply to any breach of the commercialization prohibition in Sections C.1, C.3, or C.4 of this Exception. Rights terminated by such a breach reinstate only upon the Licensor's express written reinstatement.

Section E — Reservation

E.1. All rights not expressly granted in this Exception or the Base License are reserved by the Licensor. Nothing in this Exception grants any patent or trademark rights. The Licensor may at any time offer the Licensed Material under separate commercial terms.

E.2. Commercial licensing inquiries should be directed to the University of Miami Office of Technology Transfer (techtransfer@miami.edu)
